

Photography Release

I understand, that from time to time, Hammock Expeditions, its partners and affiliates, take photographs and videos of our groups while on tour. These are used for promotional purposes, used without personal names and for lawful functions, including such examples as publicity, illustration, advertising, and web content.

I understand that all rights to use photographs are approved with implied permission unless specific written documentation is received 30-days prior to travel stating that we may not use pictures of yourself, children or other parties under your guardianship.

By signing, you confirm that you have received this notice.
